

QUIZ XMAS 2019 Round 2

I think I may have scored one, yes this is an Xmas based Steph round or Name the book and author these quotes are taken from (half point each)

1. "A merry Christmas uncle, God save you" cried a cheerful voice. It was the voice of Scrooge's nephew who came upon him so quickly that this was the first intimation he had of his approach.
2. "Didn't I tell you?" answered Mr Beaver, "that she always made it Winter and never Christmas?"
3. "Christmas won't be Christmas without any presents", grumbled Jo, lying on the rug. "It's so dreadful to be poor", sighed Meg, looking down at her old dress. "I don't think its fair some girls to have plenty of pretty things, and other girls nothing at all", added little Amy, with an injured sniff.
4. Harry had never in his life had such a Christmas dinner.....and stacks of wizarding crackers every few feet along the table
5. King John was not a good man, yet had his hopes and fears. They'd given him no presents now for years and years and years. But every year at Christmas while minstrels stood about, collecting tributes for the young, for all songs they might have sung, he stole away upstairs and hung a stocking out.
6. The stockings were hung by the chimney with care, in the hope that St. Nicholas soon would be there.
7. "It must be the field mice", replied mole, "they go around singing carols at this time of year".
8. Maybe Christmas (he thought) doesn't come from a store, maybe Christmas perhaps....means a little bit more.
9. We saw Uncle Jack every Christmas, and every Christmas he yelled across the street for Miss Maudie to marry him. Miss Maudie would yell back, "call a little louder, Jack Finch, and they'll hear you the post office, I haven't heard you yet". Jem and I thought this a strange way to ask for a lady's hand in marriage, but then again Uncle Jack was strange.
10. Hardboiled toffee, fudge and allsorts, crunches cracknels, humbugs, glaciers, marzipan and butterwelsh for the Welsh.
